A large international hotel...

...immense and baroque...

...with sumptuous but frigid decor

A stranger wanders from hall to hall...

...down endless corridors...

...in search of a woman

He tells her they met...

"last year..."

Try to remember

...that they had a passionate love affair...

...that she herself set this rendezvous...

...and that he's going to take her away

But she claims she doesn't know him

Impossible, I tell you. I've never even been to Frederiksbad

He insists, but she protests even more

What room ? I've never been in any bedroom with you

You won't remember. . .

. . .because you're afraid

And you don't recognize this photo either?

The young woman cedes ground

The stranger - serious, confident - gathers more and more proof

Who's right? Who's lying?

Is he a mere seducer? A madman?

Or has he just confused two faces?

What really happened "last year"?

You, the viewer, must answer these questions

Watch carefully

- - - an object - - -

- - - a gesture - - -

- - - a decor - - -

And I did a Jasper Johns

I flushed out twenty-five american flags

Got them during the flush

What ?

I am doing FLUSH ART for a long time

The ocean is the biggest abstract thing around. There is a lot of rocks here too

I like rocks

Oh yeah, my favorite art is the ROCK ART

What's that ?

Oh people just dig up land and move the rock,

something like that
